

Defining unnatural hair color:

Unnatural hair color is not only the pinks, blues, greens and other drastic colors, but also what we call “two tone hair color.” This is where a student might have blonde hair on top and dark brown underneath or black hair with white streaks in it or any other color combination that just looks unnatural. It is drastic color changes that do not look sun-bleached or naturally highlighted or colored.